On November 19th we went for a trip to London for 5 days.

In the first day, we left

LONDON

Groningen at 6:40 and we arrived at our hostel in London at night. The trip was very long and tiring, but I can guaranty that we had a lot of fun. At the same day, we ate at the Spaghetti house, where the food was delicious!

In the second day, we went to the Shakespeare Globe Theatre. I thought it was really interesting because I had only seen it from pictures from internet and I didn't really know much about its story. After that we went to the Tate Modern museum, where we could see many beautiful artworks. Later on, we went to the Trafalgar Square, where we had a lot of fun climbing the huge lions in the monument. Than, we went to the Chinatown and to the Oxford street, where we had a lot of free time to do some shopping and enjoying the city. At night, we went to eat at the Hard Rock Café, where the food was also delicious and the thing that I liked most is that good Rock music would play the whole time while we were eating.

In the third day, we went to the Saatchi Art Gallery, where I saw the most interesting and confronting art pieces of my life. Later at that night we went to see the musical Wicked, which was also a very fun thing to watch, we all had a good time.

At the fourth day, we went to the London Dungeon, where we had to go in to this haunted house full of things to scary us, it was very fun and scary. And later, we went to the BBC studios, where I think it was the most interesting and fun place of the whole trip, there we could see how the TV programs and series were filmed and we had the chance to perform as if we were on TV. I was so amazed that we got the chance to sit on the couch where the Match Of The Day was filmed, that means that all famous football players in the world had sat in there. In the BBC Studios we also got to know a little bit how the news, entertainment channels and the weather report were made like we see on TV. In My opinion, the fourth day was the best day of the trip, because all the most fun stuff were done in that day.

On the last day, we left the hostel in the morning by bus, and we only arrived in Groningen at 10 o'clock.

I think that thi trip was really fun and i have learned a lot from it. If i would have the chance to do it again i would surely do, and im sure that everybody had a great time in there.
